Os vinte meses que agitaram e mudaram o Brasil no século XX. Um livro essencial para entender a história política contemporânea brasileira. Trinta anos depois da Assembleia Nacional Constituinte de 1987-1988, que marcou a redemocratização brasileira, Luiz Maklouf Carvalho busca as respostas para entender o que foi o período de vinte meses em que o país acompanhou a elaboração da chamada Constituição Cidadã, o que mudou desde aquela época e o que podemos aprender com a experiência. Por meio de 43 entrevistas exclusivas com os principais personagens da Constituinte — de José Sarney a Michel Temer —, o jornalista questiona, interroga, sacode o passado para encará-lo de frente, trazendo à tona conchavos, traições, ameaças e resistência, sem nunca esquecer o poder do povo, tão presente e fundamental.
