Poema épico e obra-prima de Dante Alighieri, que começou a escrevê-la provavelmente por volta de 1307, concluindo-a pouco antes de sua morte, em 1321. A obra é um poema narrativo de cunho teológico rigorosamente simétrico e planejado, que mostra a longa viagem do personagem principal pelo Inferno, Purgatório e Paraíso. Cada etapa dessa jornada é descrita com detalhes quase visuais. Dante, o personagem principal, é guiado no Inferno e no Purgatório pelo poeta Virgílio, enquanto é Beatriz, sua musa inspiradora, quem o guia no Paraíso.
