Paddy Ashdown' s autobiography was hailed as one of the most readable and exciting political life stories ever written of all - precisely because it was so very much more.

This is the autobiography of an old-fashioned Man of Action, an adventurer, to be compared more readily to Fitzroy Maclean than David Steel. Ashdown' s years as MP for Yeovil and leader of the Liberal Democrats pale alongside his time as a Royal Marine Commando, in the Special Boat Squadron, as a spy, on military service in Northern Ireland and Indonesia, and then subsequently - perhaps his finest and most heroic role, as the UN' s High representative in war-torn Bosnia. As one reviewer remarked: " This must be the first political memoir to offer advice on the best way to execute a jungle ambush and on how to treat an open wound using red ants."

Ashdown' s appeal - which explains this book' s hardback bestseller status - is that he transcends party political allegiances, and is seen as a genuinely honest and decent man unafraid to take on the hardest challenges.
