A mosca azul é uma obra de impacto. No Palácio do Planalto, Frei Betto ocupou, em 2003 e 2004, as funções de Assessor Especial do Presidente da República e coordenador da Mobilização Social do programa Fome Zero. Aqui ele partilha com o leitor observações e reflexões de quem esteve dentro da esfera do poder. Numa narrativa lúcida, crítica e abrangente, rememora o processo social que levou Lula à presidência em 2002.

A partir de sua atuação política e social nas últimas décadas, o autor analisa a crise do regime democrático em tempos de neoliberalismo. À luz de Platão e Aristóteles, Maquiavel e Montaigne, Marx e Max Weber, Robert Michels e Hanna Arendt, e tantos outros, ele contextualiza, histórica e teoricamente, a crise da esquerda brasileira.

Escrita em linguagem clara, desprovida de academicismos e, por vezes, impregnada de poesia, A mosca azul convida o leitor a aprofundar sua visão dos fatores que levaram ao impasse um governo eleito para operar mudanças substanciais e refletir sobre a maior de todas as tentações do ser humano: o poder.
