A vida libertina do futuro Duque de Rutland termina depois de lutar um duelo de honra com um marido enganado. Envergonhado pelo resultado deste desafio, ele decide deixar Londres e ir para Haddon Hall, o lugar pacífico onde ele cresceu, na esperança de encontrar a paz que ele tão desesperadamente precisa. No entanto, a chegada de notícias inesperadas altera essa suposta calma e faz com que o duque fique bêbado. Apesar do conselho de seus parentes, ele decide cavalgar e galopar através de seus domínios. Quando ele abre os olhos após uma queda infeliz, descobre que uma mulher cuida dele em algum lugar isolado de suas terras. Seu nome, Beatrice e seu único desejo, viver sozinho pelo resto de sua vida.
