Quem é este homem que, mesmo com limitações, foi agradável ao coração de Deus e cumpriu a Sua vontade? Ele se chama Davi, de acordo com as palavras de Paulo - inspiradas no Salmo 89:20 - aos amados de Antioquia. Alguém poderia dizer: não pode ser Davi, pois ele não fez toda a vontade de Deus. No entanto, a Palavra não está equivocada: trata-se realmente de Davi. O próprio apóstolo não se enganaria em relação a isto. Pode ser uma vontade no contexto de uma geração, de uma realidade, para um determinado tempo.
