Mito político-policia. Tabu entre as forças de investigação. Pauta jamais superada na imprensa. Permanente perturbação na cabeça de homens poderosos, de partido poderoso. Este mistério perfeito e digno da melhor literatura de suspense é, no entanto, uma trama real. Nenhum crime brasileiro recente mobilizou mais o imaginário popular que o assassinato de Celso Daniel, prefeito petista da cidade de Santo André, em janeiro 2002 — mesmo ano em que Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva seria eleito presidente da República. Quase 15 anos depois, Silvio Navarro reconstrói, em detalhes, a sofisticada máquina de desvio de recursos públicos e expõe as bases operacionais do que seriam, em escala nacional, mensalão e petróleo. Resultado de uma apuração de fôlego, Celso Daniel é uma reportagem em ritmo de thriller. Um estandarte a mostrar a força do jornalismo que reúne fatos novos e esclarecedores para que encontremos a leitura, o caminho, a verdade.
