5 f. - 6 h. - Durée : 1h50

En 1939, la vie n'est déjà pas simple pour Raoul, humble cafetier de Normandie, car il doit faire face à des difficultés financières soigneusement orchestrées par son ennemi d'enfance, le terrible Ernest Ratin, tout en résistant à la nymphomanie exacerbée de Clémence, épouse de ce dernier. Il doit aussi composer avec les caractères complètement opposés de ses deux filles, Odile et Jeanine, les joutes verbales qui opposent le curé, l'institutrice et la postière du village, et le bégaiement insupportable de Firmin, amoureux transi et maladroit d'Odile. Mais alors, à partir de juin 40, les choses s'aggravent sur un rythme exponentiel. Jugez plutôt : Ratin devient le chef de la Gestapo locale alors que l'institutrice prend le maquis, Clémence se déchaîne et Firmin est fou de jalousie car les filles cachent un parachutiste britannique en mission auprès d'un mystérieux colonel Betty que personne ne connaît.
