Dever de capitão é a história real de um marinheiro sob a mira de piratas somalis nos mares do leste da África. Em março de 2009, Richard Phillips, experiente oficial da marinha mercante dos Estados Unidos, assumiu o comando do navio cargueiro Maersk Alabama com a missão de transportar toneladas de alimentos desde Omã, na península Arábica, até o Quênia.

Para isso, precisaria atravessar uma das regiões mais perigosas do mundo: o golfo de Áden, ao norte da costa da Somália, cujas águas são dominadas por piratas. Apesar de todas as precauções, o cargueiro foi abordado por um pequeno grupo de piratas somalis armados, que renderam Phillips e tentaram obrigá-lo a entregar a embarcação. A partir de então, o capitão e os invasores travaram uma guerra psicológica pelo controle do navio — e pela vida da tripulação.
