Éxodo da nombre al barco en el que un grupo de judíos supervivientes de los campos de concentración nazis intenta llegar a Palestina para encontrar la libertad.

Desafortunadamente, este barco es interceptado por los británicos y son enviados a otro campo de concentración, esta vez británico. Con la ayuda de una organización que se encarga de ayudar a inmigrantes ilegales (llamada Mossad), Ari Ben Canaan tramará un plan para liberar al grupo en Palestina. A su vez, se narra el idilio romántico e imposible entre Ari y Kitti (una enfermera americana). En esta novela el lector podrá presenciar hechos como el nacimiento del Estado de Israel o las persecuciones sufridas por los judíos de la diáspora europea.
