One of the terms that Gurudeva uses to describe Hindu practices is tools. In 2001 he stated, "I have given you all the tools, and it is up to you whether you use them or not."

There is a tendency of human nature to continue to seek after new tools and techniques, rather than use the tools we possess. Worry and unhappiness are two examples of everyday situations which can be solved by using one of Gurudeva's tools.

Gurudeva's Toolbox for a Spiritual Life was created by the monks of Kauai Aadheenam as the 2005 mahasamadhi souvenir honoring his legacy of teachings.
