Le steampunk vu par Fred Duval et Thierry Gioux : des faits historiques réels du XIXe siècle et des aventures fantastiques de héros sans peur et sans reproche. Une série proche de l'univers de Jules Verne.

L'agent Gavroche cambriole le coffre renfermant les éléments qui permettraient d'atteindre le tombeau de l'abbé Frolo et donc la pierre philosophale. C'est sans compter sur la menace de celui qui tisse sa toile depuis plusieurs mois et qui pourrait bien triompher en révélant son identité : le fantôme de Paris.

« Les dessin très précis de Thierry Gioux, alliés à l'inventivité de Fred Duval, l'un des meilleurs scénaristes de science-fiction : voilà les ingrédients d'un authentique chef-d'œuvre. » Bédéka.

« L'aspect steampunk, plus que réussi, donne au récit une grande richesse graphique et scénaristique. » BDgest'
