Ina Sue and Matt have been married for years but there are still secrets between them. She's tried to confess, but he thinks she's joking whenever she brings up supernatural discussions. How can she share her deepest secrets when he won't take things seriously? Others bring danger to her people and now she must make him believe for all their sakes. Matt is forced to reconsider a change to werewolf. He loves his new wife and for her, he will consider accepting the supernatural world. Once he does this, nothing will ever be the same again.
