Cette histoire du Moyen-âge se lit comme un roman d'aventure, à la fois épique et fascinant. De la chute de l'Empire Romain aux invasions barbares en passant par les croisades et les conquêtes arabes, on y découvre seize siècles profondément marqués par la guerre et les luttes incessantes pour le pouvoir. Mais c'est aussi et surtout une période de transition durant laquelle le monde sera confronté à de grandes évolutions, à une avancée inexorable vers les lumières de la Renaissance.
