A mentalist is a magician of the mind. And like a good magician he/she creates a sense of wonder, amazement and awe in an audience. A good Mentalist also wants to evoke a sense of fun as well as a sense of mystery. A mentalist - like a magician, seeks to take his audience into the world of imagination and leave them in a place of astonishment and wonder, where explanations run out . It is a marvelous place where all things seem possible.

In this book you will learn some world class "impromptu" mindreading. All you will need for most of these devastating routines is a pen/pencil and a few business cards or pieces of paper. In a sense this is the "Real McCoy" - no props - just you and your "abilities". There is one routine with a couple of books, ordinary books that you can put to use any time or place and one involving a watch.

What lies herein are Professional and stunning demonstrations of mentalism from the authors own repertoire from over 30 years of experience on both sides of the Atlantic. He is aware that most publications on the subject for the general public often offer weak routines designed for the amateur. What is offered here - as in How to be a Mentalist - (1 2 and 3) and his other publications In Mind, Time Flies and his series McCoy's Miracles - are super strong routines of a professional nature which are usually marketed by magic dealers for very high prices.

EVERY ROUTINE IN THIS BOOK WILL ALSO BE SHOWN ON VIDEO WITH AN ONLINE LINK- so as well as reading this revolutionary material - you will also have access to live performances and explanations. In essence - you are getting a free dvd!

This publication is probably the most exciting of the series. Why? Because you can achieve astounding results -truly great mentalism with just a pen, a few business cards and some pieces of paper. Impromptu, professional and world class.
