Em todo o mundo, milhões de pessoas consultam o I Ching, mas quantas são capazes de compreender realmente a simbologia deste clássico milenar? Traduzida diretamente do chinês arcaico para a língua portuguesa pelo Mestre Taoista Wu Jyh Cherng (1958-2004), e concebida como obra póstuma em coautoria com a sua discípula Marcia Coelho de Souza, esta edição do Tratado das Mutações fornece as chaves desse mistério. O livro busca as origens do oráculo chinês, decifrando seus enigmas para o nosso tempo, de forma límpida e rigorosa, com análises minuciosas de todos os 64 hexagramas. Depois de conquistar os leitores com I Ching, a alquimia dos números, entre outras obras também publicadas pela Mauad Editora, Wu Jyh Cherng traz aqui ensinamentos da linhagem ancestral taoista aplicados à compreensão do I Ching. A obra, usada para estudo ou para oráculo, discorre sobre a permanente alternância entre as energias Yin e Yang e a mutabilidade dos Trigramas e Hexagramas, revelando as mensagens dos números que fazem a magia do I Ching.
