La biographie de référence du maréchal Joffre, sans concession pour les idées reçues et les discours convenus.

Ni hagiographie ni critique systématique, Rémy Porte livre la biographie de référence du maréchal Joffre, sans doute le chef militaire le plus contesté de la Première Guerre mondiale. Porté au pinacle après la victoire de la Marne, à la tête des armées françaises jusqu'en 1916, Joffre est remplacé par Nivelle après les terribles batailles de Verdun et de la Somme. Mais plus que tous ses pairs, il a su incarner le commandement, en exigeant que chacun tienne sa place, à son niveau, et en assumant seul les prises de décision. Voici le portrait nuancé du généralissime, construit sans œillères à partir des sources les plus diverses.
