Injustement méconnu, Joseph Cambon est un des personnages-clé de la Révolution française. Issu d'une obscure famille de drapiers de Montpellier, rien ne le prédestinait à devenir ce grand financier qui sut donner à la France les ressources financières pour survivre. Président du Comité des Finances, Joseph Cambon fait pourtant figure de précurseur en créant le Grand Livre de la Dette Publique et en faisant prévaloir une conception moderne de l'impôt. Une biographie passionnante qui révèle comment un homme, plongé dans la tourmente révolutionnaire, se bat pour faire triompher l'idéal républicain et conserver un sens à l'État.
