Un père à la recherche de son fils consulte un magicien qui lui offre la vision des aventures du jeune égaré, faites d'amour, de duels, mais aussi d'impostures et de trahisons... Mêlant éloquence tragique, emprunts au répertoire de la comédie italienne et récit d'initiation, L'Illusion comique (1635), œuvre de jeunesse, est un étrange monstre, au dire de Corneille lui-même. Identité fuyante des personnages, invraisemblances de l'intrigue et subtilité du montage illusionniste font de cette pièce baroque et capricieuse une vibrante apologie du théâtre.
