TOBIE NATHAN

L'INFLUENCE
QUI GUÉRIT

Lorsqu'il s'agit de soigner des malades venus d'Afrique, du Maghreb, des Antilles, les « guérisseurs », malgré l'irrationalité de leurs pratiques, sont bien plus efficaces que les médecins armés de leurs médicaments et de leur « science ».

Ce livre nous propose de comprendre les méthodes de ces guérisseurs. Il montre aussi comment la psychiatrie occidentale peut s'inspirer de démarches traditionnelles pour aider des patients venus d'une autre culture.

Tobie Nathan est professeur de psychologie clinique et pathologique à l'université de Paris-VIII et directeur du centre Devereux d'ethnopsychiatrie.
