L'insouciance

"L'amour n'est rien d'autre qu'une des compensations que la vie offre parfois en dédommagement de sa brutalité." De retour d'Afghanistan où il a perdu plusieurs hommes, le lieutenant Romain Roller est dévasté. Au cours d'un séjour de décompression à Chypre, il tombe sous le charme de Marion Decker, mais découvre dès le lendemain que cette jeune journaliste est mariée à François Vély, un entrepreneur franco-américain très influent. Au même moment, Romain renoue avec son ami d'enfance Osman Diboula, fils d'immigrés ivoiriens devenu une personnalité politique montante. Tentant désespérément de reprendre le contrôle de leur vie, tous ces protagonistes sont entraînés dans un engrenage qui révèle la violence du monde.
