PARFOIS, LE MAL PREND LE VISAGE DU BIEN.

Le corps martyrisé d'un garçon de onze ans est retrouvé dans le parc de Flint City. Témoins et empreintes digitales désignent aussitôt le coupable : Terry Maitland, l'un des habitants les plus respectés de la ville, entraîneur de l'équipe locale de baseball, professeur d'anglais, marié et père de deux fillettes. Et les résultats des analyses ADN ne laissent aucune place au doute.

Pourtant, malgré l'évidence, Terry Maitland affirme qu'il est innocent.

Et si c'était vrai ?

« Un récit foisonnant. L'Outsider rappellera aux lecteurs un des premiers romans de King : Ça. »
