La crise économique qui éclata en 1929 fut exceptionnelle par son ampleur et par sa durée. Dans la plupart des États, elle détruisit des pans entiers de l'économie, plongeant par millions les individus dans la misère. Les problèmes sociaux et politiques qu'elle engendra furent si considérables que les bases du système capitaliste s'en trouvèrent profondément ébranlées. Une transformation profonde de ce système s'imposait, qui modifia le cours de l'histoire économique.
