Ce livre est parfaitement adapté pour une lecture agréable sur une liseuse numérique.

Des phénomènes inquiétants agitent Oran: des rats meurent en grand nombre, puis des hommes sont victimes d'une maladie qui semble être la peste. La ville se trouve bientôt isolée du reste du monde. Face à cet enfermement, face à la menace diffuse de la mort, l'écrivain décrit les réactions de chacun, réactions d'une très grande diversité allant du dévouement au repliement sur soi.
