Allemagne, fin de l'année 1933, Xavier de Hauteclocque, journaliste, écrivain et agent de renseignement français, achève son enquête sur l'avènement du III<sup>e</sup> Reich. La Tragédie Brune est un livre reportage qui raconte de l'intérieur le mécanisme de répression hitlérienne et la mise en place d'un état totalitaire. En immersion dans la société allemande et témoin des premiers camps de concentration, Xavier de Hauteclocque est un journaliste courageux et visionnaire. Un an après la publication de La Tragédie Brune, il est retrouvé mort, empoisonné par les services de contre-espionnage nazis. Il est le premier français victime de la barbarie hitlérienne.
