Face à l'océan dont les puissantes vagues offrent le paradis aux surfeurs, les 106 kilomètres reliant Biscarosse à l'Adour forment une immense plage, devant la forêt de pins gigantesques qui attire cyclistes et randonneurs. C'est ainsi que les Landes accueillent ses visiteurs. Mais l'eau et la forêt restent presque constamment voisins, comme le montrent les fleuves, les étangs et les cours d'eau comme l'Huchet et le Contis qui parcourent des forêts galeries. Plus loin, dans les terres, on découvre les coteaux de Chalosse, les vignes de Tursan, le Bas-Armagnac, à l'orée des Pyrénées. Ce département est au coeur du Pays Basque et il est donc fréquent d'y retrouver férias et bandas, mais il est aussi célèbre pour sa gastronomie très variée.
