« Si les hommes ont la naïveté de croire en Dieu, les chiens ont la naïveté de croire en l'homme. »

Quel est donc le secret qui cadenasse l'âme de Samuel Heymann, ce médecin apprécié de tous mais qui reste un inconnu même aux yeux de sa fille ? Quelle est l'admirable relation qui le lie depuis 40 ans à ses chiens ?

Mené comme une enquête policière, ce texte émouvant traite de la communication entre les êtres, de la vengeance et du pardon : une surprenante et bouleversante leçon d'humanité.
