Não foram poucos os contatos mediúnicos feitos com o médium Chico Xavier que o informaram sobre o fato de Emmanuel, seu mentor, ter vivido na Roma Antiga, em épocas distintas, movimentando dois personagens ilustres da família dos Lentulus. Segundo esses contatos, a primeira personalidade teria sido cônsul da República, na época de Cícero, quando se chamara Públio Cornelius Lentulus Sura, patricio ilustre e chefe da conjuração de Catilina, em Roma. A segunda personalidade teria sido seu bisneto, Públio Lentulus, senador romano que se deslocou para a Palestina, na época de Pôncio Pilatos, e ali conheceu Jesus em circunstâncias especiais, além de ter escrito uma carta com informações importantes sobre a personalidade e a fisionomia de Jesus.
