Lutte contre Charles le Téméraire, rattachement de plusieurs grands fiefs au royaume de France, modernisation de l'armée : le règne de Louis XI (1461-1483) est marqué par son œuvre de centralisation. De la masse de documents inédits que Paul Murray Kendall a passé plusieurs années à étudier ressort l'image d'un homme aux capacités exceptionnelles, doué d'une personnalité extraordinairement diverse et complexe. En abandonnant la légende au profit de la vie, on retrouve l'homme et le passé redevient présent. Cette édition de poche est l'occasion de redécouvrir un classique de la biographie historique qui apporte une contribution essentielle à l'histoire du XVe siècle tout en étant un livre d'une lecture facile et passionnante.
