La véritable histoire du plus grand des voyageurs

Après un long voyage sur la route de la soie, Marco Polo le marchand vénitien est parvenu à Chang-Tou, la capitale que le grand Khan Kubilaï a fait ériger au cœur des steppes. Agréablement surpris par ses connaissances, l'empereur mongol ne tarde pas à se lier avec le jeune explorateur qui sait parler sa langue et à lui confier d'importantes missions. Il ira jusqu'à faire de lui son ambassadeur. On sait qu'à son retour, le récit de Marco Polo et ses découvertes ont bouleversé l'image du monde et de la cartographie pour les siècles à venir... Mais que sait-on vraiment de son voyage ?
