Né dans l'Aisne à Aubenton le 9 décembre 1901 et disparu en 1936 à bord de l'hydravion Croix-du-Sud au large des côtes de Dakar, Mermoz a eu un destin unique : il fut le plus prestigieux et le plus aimé des pilotes à l'époque où l'aviation comptait encore des aventures qui tenaient de l'épopée et inspiraient au monde entier une admiration sans borne. Kessel, son ami et son biographe, dit de lui : 'Archange glorieux, neurasthénique profond, mystique résigné, païen éblouissant, amoureux de la vie, incliné vers la mort, enfant et sage, tout cela était vrai chez Mermoz, mais tout cela était faux si l'on isolait chacun de ces éléments. Car ils étaient fondus dans une extraordinaire unité.'
