Premier président de la République et dernier souverain régnant de notre histoire, Louis-Napoléon Bonaparte suscite toujours passions et jugements contradictoires. Pour Victor Hugo, il fut « Napoléon le Petit », alors que Pasteur considérait son règne comme l'un des plus glorieux de tous les temps. Figure majeure du XIXème siècle, il en incarne l'esprit, la diversité, les contradictions : homme de réflexion et d'action, autocrate et démocrate, autoritaire et libéral, réactionnaire et progressiste, apôtre de la paix et fauteur de guerre. Qui était réellement Napoléon III ? Considéré comme l'un des meilleurs connaisseurs de l'histoire politique du XIXème siècle, Éric Anceau enseigne à l'université Paris-Sorbonne et à Sciences-Po Paris.
