Orgulho e preconceito se passa na Inglaterra do século XVIII, na qual nos deparamos com as castas formadas por ricos, burgueses e nobres. Apesar dos cenários antigos descritos no livro, o leitor se deparará com um mundo moderno, pois, por detrás de todas as pompas, ritos sociais e regras de etiqueta muito comuns à época, mora soberana, na obra de Austen, a crítica ao caráter humano, sempre diversificado e atemporal. A autora, além de documentar o convívio das pessoas de sua época, denota, através de sua prosa, um controle imenso do humor e da ironia - figura de linguagem que exerce total influência de sua obra - e delata a hipocrisia, a superficialidade e os estereótipos que até hoje se mantêm em voga em nossa sociedade.
