Quel feu secret dévore Phèdre ? Qu'advierait-il pour peu que paraisse au jour la «flamme si noire» de son amour impur ? ... En s'appropriant un des grands sujets tragiques de l'Antiquité, Racine a composé la plus sombre, la plus sublime, la plus éperdue de nos tragédies : la marche implacable et funèbre de son intrigue est comme une invite à méditer sur les fureurs du désir et de la passion, sur les monstres tapis dans les replis du labyrinthe de l'âme.
