Comment les anciens Grecs se battaient-ils ? Leurs armées, leurs flottes comprenaient-elles des mercenaires ? des esclaves ? des pirates ? Comment payaient-ils les combattants ? Comment traitaient-ils leurs vaincus ? Les fortifications et murs d'enceinte offraient-ils de meilleures chances de survie et de liberté pour les défenseurs et la population ? C'est à ces questions, et à de nombreuses autres, que le présent ouvrage apporte des réponses. Il se compose de 22 études augmentées et éditées par Sylvian Fachard, en collaboration avec l'auteur.
