Québec City, the cradle of New France, enchants visitors in all seasons with its cultural and architectural treasures. Discover the capital of Québec and its surrounding region with this fifth edition of the Ulysses Travel Guide to Québec City. Experience the delights of this magnificently located fortified city, where a maze of historic streets will lead you on a trip through time.

The Ulysses Travel Guide to Québec City features 10 walking tours through one of the oldest cities in North America. In addition to the many attractions and historic sites found within Québec City itself, this travel guide also invites travellers to discover the provincial capital's surrounding region, with 2 extra tours covering such notable sites as Île d'Orléans, Côte-de-Beaupré, Parc de la Jacques-Cartier, Montmorency Falls and Mont Sainte-Anne. Attractions are star-rated, so readers can spot the must-sees at a glance, and the guide also contains a vast selection of hotels, restaurants, bars, cafes and boutiques for all budgets.
