STÉPHANE BISO
Préface d'Alban Jarry

"Imaginez votre enfant en 2030 et posez-vous les bonnes questions." Nous sommes en septembre, j'assiste à la plénière de rentrée scolaire de mon fils, tout nouvel élève de 3e quand le directeur de l'établissement nous interpelle. L'examen du brevet des collèges n'est plus capital, l'orientation oui. Les entreprises se transforment, de nouveaux métiers apparaissent, d'autres disparaissent. L'innovation technologique bouleverse nos besoins, nos comportements, nos métiers. Notre vision du travail doit donc aussi évoluer et avec elle, celle de la formation, de l'éducation, des compétences. Alors à quoi ressemblerait l'entreprise de demain? A quels enjeux devront faire face nos enfants? Quel sera leur avenir dans ce monde du travail? Et comment les y préparer?
