" Votre acte a été d'un très grand courage.
- Merci, monsieur le Procureur Molins, mais je n'ai accompli que mon devoir de citoyenne.
- Vous avez permis de sauver des vies. Ce que vous avez fait, personne ne l'a jamais fait. "

Le 16 novembre 2015, trois jours après les attentats de Paris, Sonia, témoin de premier rang, a donné à la police les informations nécessaires pour arrêter Abdelhamid Abaaoud et l'empêcher de commettre une nouvelle série d'attaques terroristes.

Avec l'aide de la journaliste Claire Andrieux, elle retrace sa course contre la montre pour épargner des vies. Son geste a eu des conséquences irrémédiables pour elle et sa famille. Elle ne regrette rien.
