En fait de changement, le rock des années 80 en est revenu au hard rock le plus pur, et donc le plus dur. Plus que jamais, la parole est aux super-héros du métal lourd, aux guitares venimeuses et aux riffs inoxydables. A la suite d'un premier volume consacré au heavy métal rock des années 70, Hervé Picart, le rock-critique à la plume de fer, et Jean-Yves Legras, le photographe le plus métallique du monde, proposent dans ce second tome un tour d'horizon agité de la nouvelle génération du hard. Des Scorpions à Trust, de Thin Lizzy à Motörhead, d'Iron Maiden à Rose Tattoo, voici venir les nouveaux barbares. Ce livre qui risque de choquer les âmes sensibles est absolument recommandé aux enfants de moins de 18 ans.
