Daniel, 18 ans, est fils de coréens immigrés à New York. Il passe un entretien pour entrer dans la prestigieuse Université de Yale.

Natasha vient de la Jamaïque. Sa famille, immigrée illégalement aux États-Unis, est sous le coup d'une procédure d'expulsion et devra quitter le pays le soir même. L'adolescente tente par tous les moyens de trouver une solution.

Sous l'effet d'un enchaînement d'évènements dus au hasard (ou au destin ?), Daniel et Natasha se rencontrent et vont vivre, le temps d'une journée, une belle histoire d'amour.

Une histoire à laquelle viennent se mêler le jeu des coïncidences, la menace de l'exil et le poids des différences culturelles.
