« Turcaret » ou le Financier est la pièce la plus célèbre de Alain-René Lesage. S'inscrivant dans une tradition classique à la Molière, Turcaret est pourtant bien différente. A la fois satire et comédie de mœurs, Turcaret emprunte autant à l'esprit de Ben Jonson qu'à la prose et aux dialogues de Molière. Le rejet du comportement des maitres par les valets, un peu moins perfides, nous a évoqué l'esprit naissant du Figaro de Beaumarchais.
