CHRISTINA DALCHER

O governo decreta que as mulheres só podem falar 100 palavras por dia. A Dra. Jean McClellan está em negação. Ela não acredita que isso esteja acontecendo de verdade.

Esse é só o começo...

Em pouco tempo, as mulheres também são impedidas de trabalhar e os professores não ensinam mais as meninas a ler e escrever. Antes, cada pessoa falava em média 16 mil palavras por dia, mas agora as mulheres só têm 100 palavras para se fazer ouvir.

...mas não é o fim.

Lutando por si mesma, sua filha e todas as mulheres silenciadas, Jean vai reivindicar sua voz.

"Uma recriação apavorante de O conto da Aia no presente e um alerta oportuno sobre o poder e a importância da linguagem." - Marta Bausells, ELLE
